To whom it may concern,

Coming into a choral system and teaching students is a real challenge and only a few people are able to do it so well. It impacts all the students in a positive way. Nathan Wubben is the one person in my life that has made a significant impact in my musical career. Being able to stand in front of a class is hard, especially if it's the beginning of your directing career, but not only has he done a great job at teaching, he has excelled in learning. Being a young director is hard and it takes time to get to the point of being great, but Mr. Wubben is always finding new ways to entertain and teach his students.

I believe that Nathan Wubben deserves this award because of all the great things he has learned and taught his students. These past 3 years of his teaching, he has made a huge impact on the school, but an even bigger impact in the hearts of everyone that has had the opportunity to work with him. He has brought the choir together to create a family. As long as he is a director, he will have a positive impact in the hearts and minds of the people he works with.

Sincerely,
