

To Whom It May Concern:

I write with enthusiasm to recommend Nathan Wubben to you.

I have had the pleasure of working with Nathan for three years at Sunset Middle School in Longmont, CO, where he has been our choir instructor and I am the drama and theatre tech teacher.

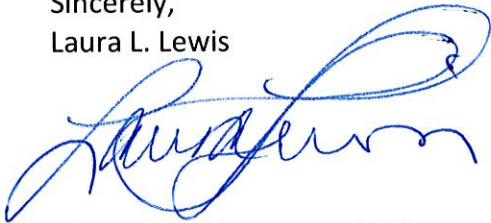

We have worked most closely on three musical productions. Nathan was instrumental in all aspects, from the initial planning to the final productions. He not only taught the music, he was our choreographer, and helped teaching some acting skills as well. He also managed the advertisements and announcements to the public. He is incredibly talented in his own right, and is very successful pulling kids into doing their own best through his example.

Sunset's choir program has also grown under Nathan's tutelage. He has started a new cappella group, and summer camp; he has even booked the group for public performances in Longmont's Art Walk revenues. His work on the state choir level and with the Boulder Children's Chorale has also elevated the resources and opportunities available for our students.

Nathan is creative and resourceful—skills he uses on behalf of his students. He was able to order a set of wireless microphones for Sunset's choir and drama productions. He brings in guest speakers and performers to his classroom.

Nathan is also incredibly personable; he works well with and is respected by everyone on our staff. He is an asset to Sunset, and would be missed hugely. He would be an asset to any school lucky enough to hire him.

Sincerely,
Laura L. Lewis
